

Melvin J. Burt

Our beloved father, Melvin J. Burt, 84, born January 25, 1903 in Salt Lake City to James G. and Amelia Jorgensen Burt, died Saturday, January 9, 1988 of causes incident to age.

Married Pauline Redd July 18, 1929 in the Cardston, Canada LDS Temple. She preceded him in death August 6, 1983. Melvin worked as a plasterer and builder. Served two missions in Mexico, the first 1925-28 and later with his wife, 1961-64, serving as building missionaries in Monterrey, Piedras, Negras, and Mexico City, Mexico. Held numerous positions in the LDS Church; served in several bishoprics; twice as bishop of Milcreek 1st Ward; and in July, 1959, was called as Milcreek Stake Patriarch.

Survived by six children, Mrs. Thomas (Lila) VanDenBerghe; Mrs. Robert (Nena) Schofield; William M. Burt; Mrs. Ernest (Kathryn) Cummings; Dr. Wayne R. Burt; and Mrs. Randy (Melanie) Lewis; 39 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; brother, Herman Burt. Preceded in death by seven brothers and sisters.

Funeral services Wednesday, January 13, 12 noon, in the Milcreek Ward Bld., 600 East 3900 South. Friends may call Tuesday, 6-8 p.m. at the Jenkins-Saffe Mortuary, 4760 South State, and one hour prior at the church. Interment, Elysian Gardens.

T 1/11

N3 11/12

Melvin J. Burt

Our beloved father, Melvin J. Burt, 84, born January 25, 1903 in Salt Lake City to James G. and Amelia Jorgensen Burt, died Saturday, January 9, 1988 of causes incident to age.

Married Pauline Redd July 18, 1929 in the Cardston, Canada LDS Temple. She preceded him in death August 6, 1983. Melvin worked as a plasterer and builder. Served two missions in Mexico, the first 1925-28 and later with his wife, 1961-64, serving as building missionaries in Monterrey, Piedras, Negras, and Mexico City, Mexico. Held numerous positions in the LDS Church; served in several bishoprics; twice as bishop of Milcreek 1st Ward; and in July, 1959, was called as Milcreek Stake Patriarch.

Survived by six children, Mrs. Thomas (Lila) VanDenBerghe; Mrs. Robert (Nena) Schofield; William M. Burt; Mrs. Ernest (Kathryn) Cummings; Dr. Wayne R. Burt; and Mrs. Randy (Melanie) Lewis; 39 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; brother, Herman Burt. Preceded in death by seven brothers and sisters.

Funeral services Wednesday, January 13, 12 noon, in the Milcreek Ward Bld., 600 East 3900 South. Friends may call Tuesday, 6-8 p.m. at the Jenkins-Saffe Mortuary, 4760 South State, and one hour prior at the church. Interment, Elysian Gardens.

T 1/11

N3 11/12

